

Godswill Ugbeva
25, Brookshore Residences, FCT, Abuja.
Tel: 08020507134
Email: ugbevarenzy@gmail.com

Education and Qualifications

Ambrose Alli University

2017 – 2022

B.Eng. (Hons) Civil Engineering (2:1)

Related Work Experience

Epaphase Nigeria Ltd

2023 – 2024

Customer Support Representative.

- Addressed and resolved customer questions and concerns through phone, email, and live chat, ensuring high levels of customer satisfaction.
- Accurately inputted and updated customer information in the database, ensuring all records were current and complete.
- Managed and resolved customer complaints promptly and effectively, ensuring a positive outcome for both the customer and the company.
- Offered detailed information about the company's products or services, helping customers make informed decisions.
- Assisted customers with placing orders, processing payments, and handling returns or exchanges as needed.
- Followed up with customers to ensure their issues were fully resolved and to maintain ongoing customer relationships.
- Worked closely with other departments, such as sales and logistics, to ensure a seamless customer experience.
- Kept up-to-date with product knowledge and company policies to provide accurate and current information to customers.

Easter Wills Construction Ltd

2021 – 2022

Site Supervision Assistant

- Established excellent working relationships with directors.
- Supported site supervisors in overseeing daily construction activities and ensuring safety protocols are followed on-site.
- Helped in inventory control and procurement processes, assisting in tracking and managing construction materials.
- Maintained project documentation such as logs, reports, and drawings and preparing daily progress reports and submitting them to supervisors.
- Conducted basic inspections to ensure work aligns with project specifications and also helped in monitoring construction quality and compliance with standards.
- Supported project managers in planning, scheduling, and coordinating tasks.
- Learned about hazard identification and risk assessment.
- Participated in basic construction tasks like concreting, bricklaying, or scaffolding and also helped respond to basic client queries under supervision.

Skills and Experiences

Communication and Interpersonal Skills

- Delivered clear presentations to stakeholders, showcasing project plans, updates, or results using visual aids, charts, and diagrams to enhance understanding.
- Utilized active listening skills to understand customer inquiries and concerns, ensuring accurate problem resolution and customer satisfaction.
- Implemented strong negotiation skills when working with vendors and contractors, effectively managing contracts, and ensuring project timelines and budgetary constraints were met.
- Acted as a liaison between different departments, facilitating effective communication and ensuring smooth coordination of administrative tasks.
- Built and maintained strong relationships with stakeholders, clients, and vendors for long-term success also adjusting communication style based on audience, whether speaking with field workers or senior management.
- Motivated and guided teams through project phases, resolving conflicts and ensuring cohesion, addressing disputes professionally, whether with colleagues, clients, or contractors, to keep projects on track.

Organizational and Time Management Skills

- Optimized processes to improve efficiency, whether managing construction workflows or client service procedures ensuring precision in project calculations, designs, and client information, reducing the risk of errors.
- Planned and managed construction project tasks, ensuring deadlines, quality standards, and client requirements are met whilst also organizing project documentation, blueprints, and reports for easy access and updates.
- Developed and maintained a comprehensive calendar system for scheduling meetings, appointments, and deadlines.
- Handled multiple projects or client inquiries simultaneously, prioritizing tasks effectively in both engineering and customer support roles, maintaining accurate records of client communications, project timelines, and material inventories to ensure seamless workflow and follow-up.
- Managed customer inquiries and complaints, ensuring prompt resolution and maintaining high levels of customer satisfaction.
- Prioritized customer inquiries based on urgency and importance, responding promptly and efficiently, assessing task urgency in both construction and customer support contexts, addressing high-priority issues first while keeping other tasks on track.

Team-Work

- Assisted team members with their workload during peak periods, demonstrating flexibility and willingness to support others.
- Worked with architects, contractors, surveyors, and regulatory bodies to ensure project success and coordinating with colleagues in sales, technical support, and management to resolve customer issues promptly and effectively.
- Worked together to meet customer satisfaction targets, such as response times and service quality aligning efforts toward completing projects efficiently, safely, and to specification.
- Mediate conflicts between customers and the company, or within the support team, to ensure positive outcomes, handling of disagreements between team members or contractors professionally to keep projects on track.

Information Technology

- Proficient in using productivity software such as Microsoft Office Suite to create and manage documents, spreadsheets, and presentations.
- Capable of evaluating and selecting appropriate software solutions to streamline project workflows.

References

Available on request